the strength of numan derives from its location, overlooking the plains of mesopotamia, and its strategic value as a stopping point on the supply route from baghdad to the eastern mediterranean. in addition, numan was where the main imperial road from baghdad to damascus crossed the tigris at the town of al-jib and whose location put it in a strategic position as a key entry into mesopotamia. other key points on the route include: jebel sinjar, key to the control of mesopotamia; tabuk and diyarbakir, key staging points for the invasion of eastern anatolia in 1330; the river valleys of the khabur and tigris; and mosul and haditha, strategic points on the mosul-baghdad road, and aleppo, the last of the great cities of the middle east.

numan is a great city of water. it is located at the confluence of three major rivers: the tigris, the euphrates, and the khabur. the khabur runs north from aleppo until it empties into the lake assad. the tigris runs north from where the euphrates meets it to the northern end of the lake assad, through nineveh, and into the town of mosul.

tareekh e baghdad in urdu pdf free 124 because of this, and the fact that the iskanj (hilwe) river meanders near the city, numan has also been home to a number of lakes, some of which are still used for irrigation. the most important of these is lake assad, formed when the mosul river flooded and emptied into the tigris. the
